31	Vincent Van Goatwas found abandoned in an empty lot in Los Angeles with a crushed leg. With the help of several rescue groups in Southern California, he underwent a successful amputation surgery and traveled all the way from Los Angeles to Santa Rosa, where he'll live out the rest of his life at Goatlandia surrounded by friends and love. He has a great personality and loves to run around with his new custom prosthetic leg.

Bleating Hearts Farm is a non-profit rescue and sanctuary located in Napa, California that provides a haven for abused or neglected farm and domestic animals in need of a permanent home. We facilitate adoptions for rehabilitated animals and educate the public about animal-friendly lifestyle choices from our self-reliant and environmentally conscious farm.

CHARLIE'S
—ACRES—

Charlie's Acres is a 32-acre farm animal sanctuary in the heart of Sonoma's wine country. With more than 140 rescued farm animals, we are dedicated to the care of all of our animals as well as serving as an educational resource and venue for showing people that these intelligent beings deserve our compassion.

They were saved as a result of a court case where activists were sued by a slaughterhouse owner for protesting. The slaughterhouse owner lost and rather than take the money, the protesters' lawyer asked for four cows to be released. Jade and Juno were two of the four cows released and came to have their fairytale ending here with us!

Located in Placer County, California, Blackberry Creek Farm Animal Sanctuary provides a refuge for animals to live out their lives enjoying kindness, compassion, and permanent sanctuary and to provide opportunities for education to the general public.

Genevieve's Gentle Hearts Rescue was created to give forgotten, abandoned and abused animals a second chance at life. We mainly rescue, foster and rehabilitate goats but always open our hearts to all animals.

Flat Broke Farm provides a clean, safe and healthy environment for sheep, pigs, chickens, ducks, geese, horses, cows, goats, cats, dogs... and a few humans too! There have also been a few exotic animals who have passed through, but our mission remains caring for the often-overlooked needs of abandoned, abused or mistreated farm animals.

They now happily reside at Herd &amp; Flock Animal Sanctuary, where they get lots of love and snacks!

Only Sunshine is a small sanctuary located just outside Sacramento. Since opening dozens of animals have been rescued, rehabilitated and when possible found loving forever homes. There is an emphasis on sustainability of the land and using the healing power of animals to reach out to the community. Peace, love and compassion for all living creatures is the goal.

In 2014, Monica and David Stevens founded Jameson Humane (formerly Jameson Animal Rescue Ranch), as a registered nonprofit organization to improve animal well-being through global collaboration and education for the benefit of all life. Guided by instincts, Jameson listens to the community and responds holistically to the needs of our animals and their human guardians. Jameson collaborates and educates to inspire change in animal welfare, not only in local communities, but around the world, using a program model that includes a variety of novel solutions and approaches driven by education. Every day, Jameson’s work is guided by how animals, the environment, and the community are all inextricably connected.
