"My picture is a superhero doctor, who is also a dentist, taking care of a patient while they are sick."

- Harper Luckenbach (6)

heroes, as they are the one, who, even after having a proper knowledge of how dangerous it is to be in close contact with the patients, still give their best to treat the patients. For them, patients' health is of utmost importance! Second most important role is played by the policemen and the cleaners."

- Dr. Sanjivani Jadhav (27)

"When I told him [my son] about the drawings on our real life heroes, he was very excited because this is the first time he experiencing the real value of healthcare in our life. He is always very fascinated about the Superhero's but now when we saw the news that many of the healthcare hero's sacrificed their own lives, cut them off from their families and loved ones in the line of duty, he is saying 'these are real superheroes who save the lives of others in this pandemic. When no one wants to even talk to corona patients, these heroes work day and night to save their lives and make them healthy again. Big salute to all the healthcare workers. This sketch is a small tribute to the real SUPERHEROES."

- Akarshan Singh (31)

"I would like to thank all healthcare heroes for their courage and dedication."

- Prasanthi Jandhyala (45)
